

NUTRIZIONE

What becomes mandatory in Europe with the new EU Regulation on Food Information to Consumers? What does the Institute of Medicine recommend for a standard “Front-Of-Pack” system in the USA?

How did Australia and New Zealand governments respond to traffic light recommendations in the Labelling Logic report?

EUFIC and partner food information organisations have produced a January 2012 edition of the Global Update on Nutrition Labelling. It is directed to those that have a particular interest in the state of nutrition labelling around the world, both from a regulatory perspective and beyond. (...)
