

What is a green school?

Scritto da Administrator

Whether they're called green schools, sustainable schools, eco-schools, or high-performance schools, people want to know: What makes these schools special? How can my school join this movement?

Every school will find its own right path. That's part of the challenge. It's also what makes the process so rewarding. Here's an introduction to this dynamic movement, designed for easy downloading and sharing. (...)
